For State's Attorney

Peter R. Ingelson

who is a candidate for State's Attorney, has lived in Rock Island County practically all his life. He has practiced law in the city of Moline for the last fifteen years, during which time he has built up a large clientage. For eight years he has been connected with the State's Attorney's office at different times, serving as assistant under John K. Scott for four years and under L. M. Magill for four years, one year he being the chief assistant. It was during this time that he showed both fairness and ability to handle the work connected with the State's Attorney's office, rendering very valuable service during the trouble that took place in Rock Island with which the public is well familiar. He has always been independent, having never been aligned with any faction or clique and therefore is not only able, experienced and competent, but if elected will give every one a square deal and be true to his oath. He certainly can say, "I have malice toward none and charity to all." His name appears second under the list of names for State's Attorney. If you believe in having a good, efficient, capable, experienced man to fill the office of State's Attorney place a cross in the square opposite his name on the Republican ballot.

George W. Gamble

Candidate for Renomination on the Republican Ticket for

Clerk of the Circuit Court

Mr. Gamble is one of the most competent and efficient clerks of the circuit court in the state of Illinois. The office is important and requires experience. He has in his keeping not only the records of the courts, but he must prepare many of the court's entries and record them and keep them filed so that there may be ready reference to them at all times.

Mr. Gamble is known to most of the people of the county and they have always found him courteous, obliging and prompt. You can get no better nor more competent man for that office.

Leo J. Deisenroth

Who is a candidate for the republican nomination as probate clerk of Rock Island county is the present incumbent of this position.

Mr. Deisenroth was born and reared in Rock Island and has resided here all of his life. Since the amputation of his left leg in 1898 he has done clerical work chiefly. In 1910, when the probate court was established, he was appointed as deputy by Probate Clerk John Rinck and continued to act as deputy probate clerk until the death of Mr. Rinck and through the administration of John E. Fleming. In April of 1915, Mr. Deisenroth was appointed probate clerk by Judge Benjamin Bell to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Mr. Fleming.

Since his connection with this court, Mr. Deisenroth has improved every opportunity to acquaint himself thoroughly with this branch of the law, and his earnest efforts to please and service has won for him the support of those with whom he has been associated in his capacity as clerk.

A vote from you at the primaries on Sept. 13 will mean a continuance of service such as only one familiar with the work can give.

Has practiced law in Rock Island since 1903.

Many important cases have been in his charge.

His ability and experience make him a logical candidate for this important office.

JAMES A. WELLS

Aledo, Ill.

Candidate for the Republican Nomination
for

REPRESENTATIVE
33rd District

Primaries, Wednesday,
Sept. 13, 1916.

Fred W. Young
of Rock Island

An old republican, but a new candidate.

He is seeking the republican nomination for member of the board of equalization from the Fourteenth congressional district.

He is an experienced Rock Island county man seeking an important office and the people of this county will be loyal to him.

He is the son of a Civil war veteran who served on the firing line.

His friends did not "urge" or "compel" him to run for the office. Therefore he is not pledged for "favors."

He was formerly a railroad man of wide experience and his business training particularly fits him for this position.

He is the "Young, the Good Roads Booster," and has become widely known because of his work in oiling and graveling highways. If elected to this office he can continue in the "good roads" work, as the office does not conflict with it.

Women can vote for him.

Thomas Campbell

Candidate for the Nomination on the Republican Ticket for Representative in General Assembly
From the Thirty-third District.

Thomas Campbell has represented this district for 16 years in the general assembly. His years of experience in legislative matters and knowledge of the affairs of the state make his services of great value. A new man could not expect to be in position to perform the same services for his constituents without having had a number of years' experience.

Mr. Campbell has always voted for what he thought was right and has opposed all vicious legislation.

He opposed the bill granting railway fare to members for the extra sessions and refused to draw the money when it was allowed. He has been honest, consistent and reliable and true to his trust in every way.

His friends believe it would be a mistake not to return him to the general assembly where he has served so long and so faithfully.

Harry M. McCaskrin

For State's Attorney

Harry M. McCaskrin asks re-nomination under a united Republican Party, to be the Republican Candidate for the State's Attorneyship of Rock Island County. Republican voters, at the primary, April 9th, 1912, nominated Mr. McCaskrin, their candidate, with over five hundred votes to spare. At the election when Mr. Taft received 2,394 votes and former Governor Deneen received 4,185 votes in Rock Island county four years ago, Mr.
McCaskrin, as candidate for State's Attorney on the same ticket, received 5,940 votes, running 3,546 votes ahead of the National Ticket and 1,755 votes ahead of the State Ticket.
